Evanced Application Hosting FAQ

Q: Do we have to pay for Evanced hosting?

A: Hosting prices are based on your library's population/circulation size. Many of our customers have a low enough population that they are eligible for free hosting. If your library's circulation is in the millions, there will be a charge. If you're curious, please email us: support [at] evancedsolutions [dot] com

Q: Will my hosting price increase if our population grows?

A: We have never increased a customer's hosting price due to a population increase after the fact.
